H.Y., A MINOR

VS.

CAUSE NO. SC 2007-4

MISSISSIPPI BAND OF CHOCTAW INDIANS

APPELLEE

AGREED ORDER OF DISMISSAL

ON THIS DAY CAME Appellant, H.Y., Minor, represented by James L. Lane, Jr., and Appellee, the MISSISSIPPI BAND OF CHOCTAW INDIANS ("MBCI"), by and through the Office of the Attorney General. On or about June 26, 2007, the Appellant perfected her Notice of Appeal with this Court. Due to the record of this cause not being recorded or duly preserved, an official transcript of the proceedings is not available for either party to review and rely upon in preparing for oral argument before this Honorable Court, thus prejudicing both parties in their preparation for pursuing this appeal to completion. The parties have agreed this matter should be dismissed. Additionally, the underlying action involved a minor, who is now no longer a minor. MBCI agrees that upon the dismissal of this cause, the Appellant shall not be required to fulfill any sanctions or punishment which were stayed pursuant to Choctaw Tribal Code § 7-1-5. The parties agree that pursuant to §11-3-5 of the Choctaw Tribal Youth Code, the Appellant's youth record should be expunged and the Youth Court record of this matter should be destroyed.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the appeal filed on June 26, 2007, shall be dismissed.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Appellant's youth record shall be expunged and the Youth Court record shall be destroyed in accordance with §11-3-5 of the result in this appeal being deemed not perfected and an order of dismissal shall be entered absent other provisions of the Rules.

SO ORDERED on this the 20th day of February 2009.
